Tarjem

Certified Translation Bureau | Hamra, Beirut | Since 2016

Business Profile

1. Who we are

Tarjem (the Arabic word for "translation") is a certified translation bureau based in Hamra, Beirut. Founded in 2016, we translate the documents people need for study, work, residency and legal matters abroad. Every certified translation is produced by a sworn translator and then reviewed, page by page, by a second linguist before it is stamped and delivered.

Mission

To make official paperwork less stressful by being clear, fast and honest: published prices, a short checklist before work starts, and no surprises afterwards.

What makes us different

- A sworn stamp and a two-person review on every page.
- Flat, published per-page pricing with no hidden fees.
- An intake checklist (document type, language pair, destination country, page count) that catches avoidable formatting problems before they cause delays.

2. Services

Service	What it covers
Civil documents	Birth, marriage and death certificates, family civil extracts, criminal record extracts, residency and identity-related records.
Academic documents	Diplomas, transcripts, enrollment letters, course descriptions, recommendation letters.
Legal and commercial documents	Contracts, powers of attorney, court judgments, company registrations, financial statements and similar texts.
Notarization coordination	Our runner submits your stamped translation to the notary and ministry legalization counters on your behalf. Government fees are set by the authorities, are extra, and processing time is outside our control.
Delivery	Stamped PDF by email. Optional hard copy by courier within Lebanon. We do not ship internationally.

Language pairs: Arabic, English and French, in any direction (Arabic-English, Arabic-French, English-French). No other languages are currently offered.

3. Pricing and turnaround

All prices are in US dollars. A page is up to 250 words. Prices are per page.

Document class	Price per page	Standard turnaround
Civil documents	$18	2 business days
Academic documents	$22	3 business days
Legal and commercial documents	$30	4 business days (up to 5 pages)

Add-on or surcharge	Cost
Notarization and ministry legalization coordination	$25 per document, plus government fees
Rush delivery (within 24 hours)	+50% on the translation fee
Same-day express (order before 11:00, maximum 3 pages)	+100% on the translation fee
Courier within Beirut	$5
Courier elsewhere in Lebanon	$8
Minimum order	$15

Documents longer than 5 pages (legal and commercial) are quoted individually by our team after we see the file. Payment is by bank transfer, card or cash at our office; orders above $200 require a 50% deposit.

4. How an order works

Step	Name	What happens
1	Intake	You tell us the document type, language pair, destination country and page count, and send a clear scan.
2	Quote	We confirm the price and turnaround from our published rates.
3	Translation	A sworn translator produces the translation.
4	Review	A second linguist reviews every page against the source.
5	Stamp and delivery	The translation is stamped and sent as a PDF, with an optional courier copy.

5. Team

Name	Role	Background
Dr. Nadine Haddad	Founder and lead sworn translator	15 years of experience in Arabic, English and French legal translation; formerly a court-appointed translator.
Karim Saad	Co-founder and operations director	Former logistics manager; runs intake, scheduling and quality control.
Rima Fakhoury	Head of quality and French desk	Reviews every French-language file; trains new reviewers.

Name	Role	Background
Tony Mansour	Client success	First point of contact for customers; handles feedback and follow-ups.

6. Policies

Corrections: free correction of any translator error reported within 30 days of delivery. Changes caused by a new or different source document are billed as a new order.

Refunds: a full refund if we cannot deliver an order, or if an error we made cannot be corrected. No refund is given once a correct certified translation has been delivered.

Confidentiality: all translators sign NDAs. Source files and translations are deleted from our systems after 90 days.

Hours: Monday to Friday 09:00-18:00, Saturday 10:00-14:00 (Beirut time). Closed on Sundays.

> Important notice. Whether a translation is accepted is decided solely by the receiving authority (an embassy, university, court or ministry). Tarjem does not guarantee acceptance, and does not provide legal or immigration advice. For requirements specific to a particular authority, please check directly with that authority.
